

The value of white space equals the copy plus the circulation, multiplied by the number of insertions.—Mahn's Messenger.

I object to the term "advertising expense." Right advertising is not an expense and never was. It is an investment, a business enterprise, a policy, which almost from the start can be made to pay its own premiums and a large profit, besides accumulating a fund that guarantees the advertiser every dollar of his investment.—George Dyer.

YOUNG COUPLE COPELLED TO JUMP FOR LIFE

James Abbott and Ella Mole Caught on Union Pacific Bridge by Engine.

GIRL'S HEAD STRUCK AND SKULL CRUSHED

BOY'S INJURIES SLIGHT—RIGID INVESTIGATION ORDERED BY RAILWAY COMPANY.

(Special to The Herald.) Ogden, June 22.—Caught like rats in a trap, Miss Ella Mole and James Abbott were overtaken by an engine on a bridge over the Weber river at Devil's Slide shortly after 9 o'clock Sunday evening. Young Abbott made a brave effort to save the girl, but she was injured to such an extent that she died six hours later. Miss Mole formerly lived with her parents in this city and young Abbott is the son of J. W. Abbott, a prominent resident of Ogden.

According to the story told by the boy, he and Miss Mole, together with another couple, went out for a walk. Their wanderings led them across the Weber river bridge of the Union Pacific. When the party was ready to get on a train, a train was heard. They waited for the train to pass and then, thinking that it would be some time before another train came along, they began walking the ties over the bridge.

Compelled to Leap for Life.

When about the center of the structure was reached the girl looked back and saw the headlight of an engine. She became excited and seizing young Abbott by the arm, appealed to him for help. Abbott aided the girl as best he could and together they tried to reach the end of the bridge. Before they succeeded in reaching the bank of the river, however, the engine was so close that there was but one thing to be done, and that was to leap for their lives.

It was then that Abbott saw the girl was in a veritable state of collapse and, seizing her in his arms, he leaped off the bridge backward, landing on the bank of the river, some fifteen feet below. The leap was not executed quickly enough, however, and some projection of the engine struck the girl on the back of the head at the base of the brain.

Girl Fatally Injured.

When the boy and girl landed on the ground he was underneath and shielded her from striking the ground. Abbott at once saw that the young woman was insensible, although he had escaped with a few minor injuries. He summoned aid at once, but the girl's condition was such that she died at 3 o'clock in the morning.

Young Abbott stated positively that no part of the girl's body struck the ground when he leaped from the bridge with her and asserted to his parents here that the young woman's neck was not broken. He attributes the cause of death to the blow she received from the engine.

Investigation Ordered.

At railroad headquarters here the information was given out yesterday that a rigid investigation had been started. An agent of the company was sent to the scene of the accident on the first train after the news had been received here. It was also stated that there were three men on the engine which is supposed to have run the couple down and that all three asserted the couple on the bridge were not seen by them, although the headlight was burning brightly.

Young Abbott is employed at the plant of the Union Portland Cement company at Devil's Slide, as an assistant chemist. Miss Mole was well known to a large circle of friends here, having formerly lived with her parents at 3268 Washington avenue. Her age was about 19.

WILL VISIT OYSTER BAY.

New Haven, Conn., June 22.—Secretary Taft and General Wright will go to Oyster Bay on Saturday morning for an extended conference with the president. At the conference with the president the secretary and his successor, General Wright, will consider pending matters before the war department, and in addition the secretary will discuss with President Roosevelt the selection of a Republican national chairman.

PERMIT REVOKED.

Helena, Mont., June 22.—The city council tonight revoked the permit granting the use of the Auditorium to Mrs. Ida Crouch-Hazlett, editor of a Socialist paper, for a joint debate with Emma Goldman on the subject of "Anarchy versus Socialism."

DEMOCRATIC LEADERS BEGINNING TO ASSEMBLE FOR THE MAIN EVENT

Denver, June 22.—Urey Woodson, secretary of the Democratic national committee, and Roger Sullivan, committeeman from Illinois and also chairman of the general committee on arrangements, arrived here today to set in motion the work of arranging the immediate preliminaries of the national convention, which will begin July 7.

Sergeant at Arms John I. Martin of St. Louis, who has been here looking after the general plan of arrangements up to this time, was the first to greet them at the Union station. Together they visited the new Auditorium, where the convention will be held, and watched the decorators at work on the final touches, also making a general inspection of the massive structure, and pronounced it all that could be desired for the purpose intended.

BUSY TIME FOR MR. TAFT AT YALE

Secretary Warmly Welcomed at His Alma Mater by Students and Alumni.

JUDGE SPOONER'S ADDRESS

SEVERE RAP AT ROOSEVELT IN WELL-CHOSEN WORDS.

New Haven, Conn., June 22.—Secretary of War William H. Taft returned to Yale, his alma mater, today to attend the reunion of his class of '78. Although his intention was to join his classmates as "Taft of '78," he found himself the chief guest of the commencement exercises and he had scarcely entered the shadow of the university building before he took up his duties as a member of the corporation. Few opportunities came for him to clasp the hands of many '78 men who had gathered in the old Edwards mansion on Elm street, selected as class headquarters, for he was immediately escorted to Woodbridge hall for the corporation meeting, then into the commons to speak to the young men who were about to be given their law school sheepskins, and finally to College hall, where the medical school exercises were held.

Mr. Taft reached the city at 1 o'clock, unaccompanied. Mrs. Taft and Master Charles Taft having reached here on an earlier train and gone to the home on Prospect street of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Farnam, whose guests they are to be until Thursday. Mr. Taft was met at the station by a delegation from his class, and after exchanging greetings he stepped into an automobile and was whisked away to the Edwards house, where about forty '78 men were ready to extend a welcoming hand.

Greeted With Cheers.

After a short stay the secretary went to Woodbridge hall, where the corporation was in session. He left this meeting a little later, walked across the campus to the commons and, passing in, was met with a cheer from those who first got a glimpse of him. His advent was just at the conclusion of an address by ex-Senator Spooner of Wisconsin.

The entire alumni rose and cheered the secretary until Memorial hall resounded. Later on Mr. Taft spoke to the young men who in cap and gown sat at a long table in front of him. The secretary subsequently returned to the corporation meeting, and at its conclusion donned the robes of a doctor of laws and walked to the law school, where he entered the auditorium John W. Foster was making an address, but the audience rose and cheered wildly.

At the close of these exercises the secretary, accompanied by President Bradley and escorted by the faculty of the medical school, walked to College hall, where he attended the exercises. On the steps of Osborne hall were gathered groups of Yale men back to their reunions, most of them in fantastic garb, and these lustily cheered him. The secretary subsequently returned to the corporation meeting, and at its conclusion donned the robes of a doctor of laws and walked to the law school, where he entered the auditorium John W. Foster was making an address, but the audience rose and cheered wildly.

Law School Luncheon.

Dean Henry Wade Rogers presided at the luncheon of the alumni of the law school. The first speaker, ex-United States Senator Spooner of Wisconsin, paid a tribute to Mr. Taft as a Yale man who is "abundantly equipped to hold the very highest office in the gift of the people." He then addressed himself to the young men present about to be graduated, saying:

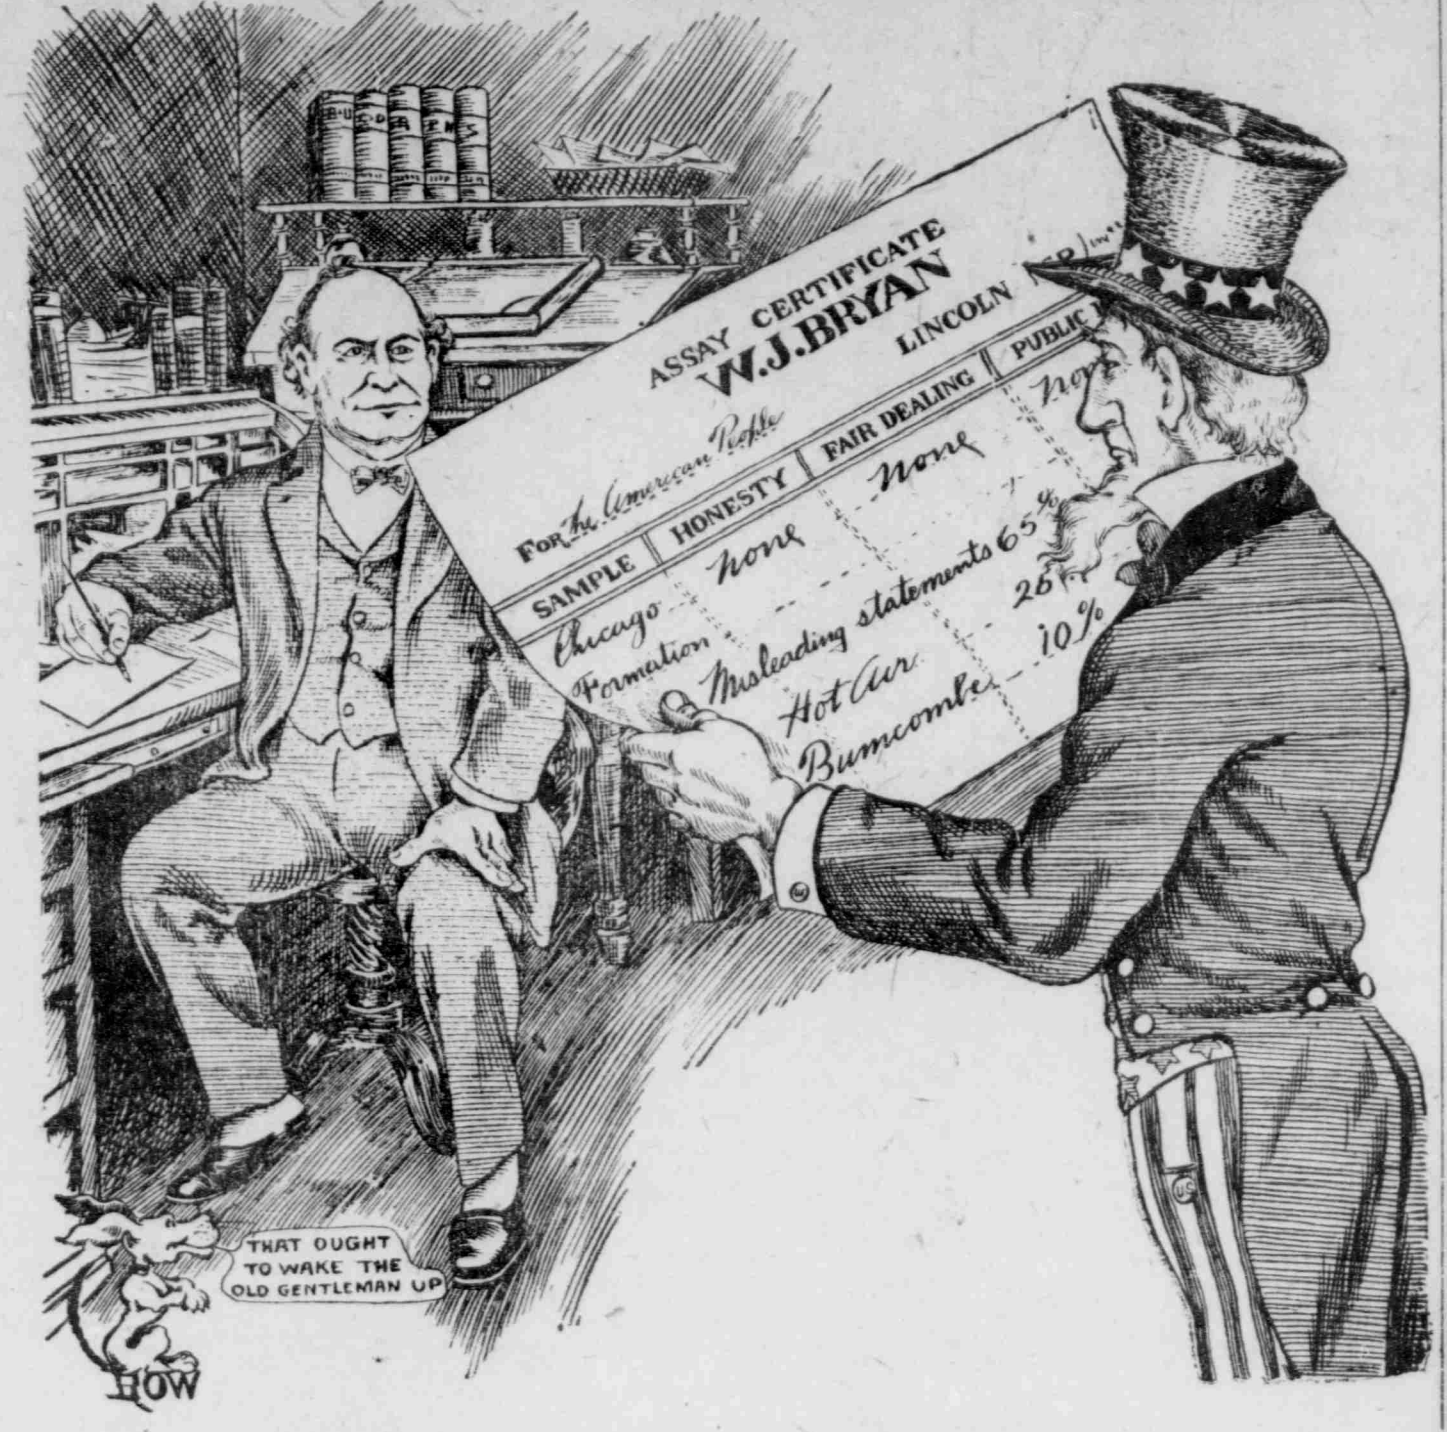

"I want to impress upon you that while you may differ on political questions, there is something which rises above politics and something which lawyers cannot afford to differ on. The lawyer under his oath owes it to his country and to himself to stand firm on the basic principle of popular government. He must believe that the essential to government are three co-ordinate branches—the executive, the legislative and the judicial. Each must keep within its bounds, or representative government cannot exist. And when you find a government in which these three branches have become subordinated to the will of the executive, popular government has ceased to exist. I speak of this in an impersonal way."

Judiciary the Last Hope.

"The last hope of liberty in this government is an upright, fearless, incorruptible judiciary. If, in the lapse of time, you find a political body advocating any measure which seeks to impair the foundation of government as laid down by the founders, as you value your oath of office, fight it."

The people of the three co-ordinate branches of government ought not to be forgotten for a moment.

Continued on Page 2.

After the Fire Test.

RECEIVER FOR BELT RAILROAD

Wabash Put in a Claim for Large Amount and Forced the Proceedings.

Pittsburg, June 22.—F. H. Skeldin, president of the First National bank, and H. W. McMillan of the Wabash railroad, who were recently appointed receivers of the Wabash-Pittsburg Terminal railroad, were today also appointed receivers for the West Side Belt railroad by the United States circuit court. Their bond was fixed at $50,000. Receivers for the West Side Belt railroad were appointed by Judge Young, on petition of the Wabash Railroad company, which put in a claim for $86,000, the balance due on a promissory note, given July 1, 1906. It is claimed there are $300,000 outstanding in bonds mortgaged to the Union Trust company of Pittsburg, and also $430,000 in bonds of the Wabash-Pittsburg Terminal Railroad & Coal company, for which the defendant is liable.

It is recited that until Nov. 1, 1907, the road earned sufficient moneys to meet expenses, but owing to a decrease in business the deficit has rapidly grown.

Attorney Jarrett filed an answer to the petition admitting that the road is insolvent and asking that the petition be granted.

GAS COMPANY WANTS ORCHARD'S TESTIMONY

San Francisco, June 22.—The San Francisco Gas company filed a petition on a writ of mandate with the supreme court today, seeking to compel Judge Graham to appoint a commission to take the testimony of Harry Orchard in support of the company's appeal from a judgment rendered against it for $10,000 in favor of Walter Linforth for the destruction of a flat owned by him by a gas explosion.

The explosion in question is the one in which F. Bradley was injured, and which Orchard stated at the trial of William D. Haywood at Boise City, Ida., he caused with a bomb.

The supreme court issued an alternative writ, returnable July 6.

The execution of Orchard is set for July 2.

UTAH PUBLIC BUILDINGS.

Bids Opened and Contracts Let by Treasury Department.

(Special to The Herald.) Washington, June 22.—Bids were opened at the treasury department today for the construction of the public building at Provo. The bids were as follows: Campbell Building company, Salt Lake, $51,377; Tom Lovel, Denton, Tex., $51,270; George Hinchliff, Chicago, $52,600.

The secretary of the treasury today awarded to R. F. Fletcher of Columbus, O., the contract for installing an electric lighting system in the Ogden public building, for $2,023. The steam heating contract for the same building was awarded to the Jones Manufacturing company, Oskaloosa, Ia., at $3,019.

WYOMING SHEEPMAN GETS YOUNGER WIFE

(Special to The Herald.) Cheyenne, Wyo., June 22.—J. B. Okie, the millionaire sheepman of Lost Cabin, Wyo., who a year ago created a sensation by divorcing his wife and paying her cash alimony of $50,000, tonight was married to Mrs. Clarice V. Lovett, who secured a divorce from Herbert G. Lovett in the district court this afternoon. The bride was employed for several years by the Bell Telephone company at Casper and while there handled the long-distance calls to Okie's ranch. She is regarded as one of the most beautiful young women in the state.

CASE OF STEVE ADAMS CALLED

Prosecution Wins Decision Over Defense in Preliminary Struggle.

Grand Junction, Colo., June 22.—The trial of Steve Adams of the Western Federation of Miners, charged with the murder of Arthur L. Collins, the Telluride mine superintendent, had hardly been called in the district court here today when the opposing attorneys became involved in a bitter wrangle over the efforts of the prosecution to introduce new names upon the indictment as witnesses, and an attempt on behalf of the defense to prevent ex-Congressman Hogg of Pueblo and J. S. Carnahan of Grand Junction from acting as attorneys for the state. The charge was made that Hogg and Carnahan had been employed by the Mine Owners' association.

Defense Overruled.

Judge Shackelford allowed the new names to be inscribed upon the indictment and also permitted Attorneys Hogg and Carnahan to remain in the case, it being shown to his satisfaction that they were employed by San Miguel county.

The attorneys for the defendant were announced as follows: O. N. Hilton of Denver, Ralph E. Esteb of Denver, L. O. Whitsett of Boise City and Samuel N. Wheeler of Grand Junction. It is rumored that Clarence Darrow of Chicago may come to assist in the defense later on.

The sheriff was ordered to summon 100 men for jury service.

Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, is here and will remain throughout the trial.

GRAY WOULD NOT ACCEPT

Vice Presidency Has No Charms for the Delaware Jurist and Statesman.

Wilmington, Del., June 22.—Federal Judge George Gray would not under any circumstances accept the Democratic nomination for vice president. A definite announcement to this effect was made tonight by former Congressman L. Irving Handy, who will make the speech at Denver placing the judge in nomination for the presidency, which task he performed four years ago. Mr. Handy was asked tonight regarding the acceptance by Mr. Bryan of a suggestion of V. B. Britton of Dixon, Ill., that Judge Gray be his running mate, and he replied:

"Judge Gray would not consider the nomination for vice president on the ticket with Mr. Bryan or with any other presidential candidate. If the Denver convention should nominate him for this office he would immediately decline the honor, and somebody else would have to be named. The judge would look upon the office of vice president as a place with all deprivations of a convent, and none of the consolation of religion."

Mr. Handy, who is close to the judge, is one of the delegates from Delaware to the Denver convention.

HULL NOW AHEAD.

Des Moines, Ia., June 22.—A recount of the ballots of the Third precinct of the Second ward in Des Moines, which was completed at 11:30 o'clock this morning by the Polk county supervisors, gave J. A. T. Hull fifty-six more votes than he was credited with in the returns of the election judges. Hull is now fifty votes ahead.

TAFT EASY FOR AN DEMOCRAT

Opinion of "Fingy" Connors of New York, a Johnson Supporter.

New York, June 22.—W. J. Connors, of Buffalo, chairman of the state Democratic committee, was in New York today and said to several newspaper men that he believed Mr. Taft would be an easy candidate for the Democrats to defeat.

"There were several stronger men who might have been nominated," said Mr. Connors, "but none weaker. His only qualification for the office is that Roosevelt wanted him. Well, I would rather not say anything about Sherman; everybody knows about him."

"Is the nomination of Bryan as certain as was that of Taft?" Mr. Connors was asked.

"I won't believe it until I see it," he declared. "There are other Democrats who could defeat Taft beyond a doubt."

"Who—Johnson?"

"To a certainty."

"Well, if the New York delegation sees that Bryan's nomination is certain, will it come into line?"

"We'll wait until we get to the convention."

"Will the platform be radical?"

"Yes, to a certain extent."

"Will it contain a court plank?"

"I'd rather have it contain none than the one that was put in the Republican platform; that means nothing."

"Labor will cut a strong figure, will it not?"

"It always does," said Mr. Connors.

NOT A CANDIDATE.

John Mitchell Has His Eye on Civic Federation Job.

Chicago, June 22.—John Mitchell, former president of the United Mine Workers of America, tonight gave out a letter declining to become a candidate for political office and indicating that he will become instead the head of the trade agreement department of the National Civic federation. The letter was addressed to John C. Harding, secretary of the political committee of the Chicago Federation of Labor, and he calls attention to recent illness as further reason for his declining to take an active part in the coming campaign.

Mr. Mitchell's work with the Civic federation will involve attempts to settle labor disputes without resort to strikes or lockouts. The position carries a salary of $6,000 a year. Mr. Mitchell says that he feels that he can be of more service to organized labor by trying to secure industrial peace than by being governor of Illinois.

"Does this apply to the vice presidential nomination as well as to the governorship of Illinois?" Mr. Mitchell was asked.

"I cannot well decline that which has not been offered. My idea in the letter was to express the decision not to mix in politics in any form."

CUTLER MAKES ANNOUNCEMENT OF CANDIDACY

Governor Pledges Himself to Many Worthy Objects if Re-elected.

HAS MILD REBUKE FOR HIS DETRACTORS

VIOLENT OPPOSITION ONE OF HIS REASONS FOR BEING A CANDIDATE.

Governor John C. Cutler yesterday made a formal announcement of his candidacy for the Republican nomination for the governorship. Mr. Cutler incidentally offered a mild criticism of his detractors and outlined the platform on which he proposes to make his campaign for re-election. His platform, in brief, is:

1. A great university.
2. A great school of mines.
3. A great agricultural college.
4. To advance the Mormon irrigation system, so as to preserve the youth of the state and eliminate the expense of criminals.
5. To establish a home for the feeble-minded.
6. To erect a state capitol.
7. To encourage dry farming by development of great reservoirs with state aid so that the state will be self-sufficient in food.

Governor Cutler's announcement was met with a storm of criticism from his detractors. Some of the most violent opposition came from the Republican party itself. One of the most prominent of these was the editor of the Salt Lake Herald, who in an editorial published in the official organ of the church, expressed his opinion that Taft was the best man for the presidency and quoted an unnamed authority in support of his position. With a view to ascertaining the sentiment of Mormon Democrats with regard to the attitude of the News, The Herald yesterday interviewed several of the more prominent ones.

In every instance, as will be seen by the sentiments expressed below, indignation against the Mormon church and come out as a straight Republican newspaper or cease printing Republican editorials and resume the functions for which it was created and become once more a church organ.

Two questions were submitted in each instance. First: "What was the purpose of the News editorial? Second: What will be its effect?" The replies follow:

Mr. Roberts' View.

B. H. Roberts.—There are two ways in which the editorial in the News on the Republican party nominee for president may be regarded. First, that it is the insipid utterance of a scoundrel who neither knows what he wants to say, nor how to say it. Evidently the writer could not steadfastly hold to logical thinking through so many as a score of sentences; for in the opening sentence he says: "Secretary Taft, if elected president, as he in all probability will be, will make an excellent chief executive." Then some forty lines further on, referring to Mr. Taft's victory in the Chicago convention, the writer says: "The victory in the convention is his own, and the victory at the polls will be his own. But will he win?" Query: Does the writer mean to assert positively that Mr. Taft will win, that he ought to win, that the News, organ of the Mormon church, will do what it can to have him elected? Or does the writer mean to insinuate that the News writer is merely propounding a presidential conundrum, as the last sentence would seem to indicate? Nor is the matter cleared up by the sentence which comes later, namely: "There is a quiet but certain feeling among the masses that Taft is the best man for the job."

Governor Cutler's Letter.

Mr. Cutler's letter announcing his candidacy follows:

"A number of my friends have urged me to place myself before the people of the state as a candidate for re-nomination. I have given the matter much thought that I had already been honored by the people of Utah as much as I deserved, and that I would not therefore be a candidate for a second term. But I have reconsidered; and especially because of the fact that such violent opposition to the policies of the present administration has been made by certain persons, some of whom, I am satisfied, have not the best interests of the state at heart. I have concluded to be a candidate again."

Educational Institutions.

"If I am re-nominated and re-elected, I intend to continue to work for the best interest of the whole state and all its people, as I see it. If I can have my way, we shall have the best university in America, turning out professional men who will be in demand everywhere. The vast of mines will furnish men to develop to the fullest possible extent the mineral wealth of Utah and the intermountain region, and help to bring the state to the position it is entitled to occupy; as the greatest producer of the precious and useful metals. Our agricultural college will be built up still further along the lines of its establishment, making thousands of practical farmers. The News determines what the end will be as soon as the national Republican party determines what it wants, and before the Democratic convention even meets to choose a candidate or formulate a platform, and this in the face of a divided Republican party and a divided Democracy. To say if this is desirable, and what it wants to achieve."

Utility for Campaign.

James H. Moyle.—The editorial of the News will be carried about the state in one way or another as an evidence of how the church authorities desire the presidential campaign. It is a shame, because the News determines what the end will be as soon as the national Republican party determines what it wants, and before the Democratic convention even meets to choose a candidate or formulate a platform, and this in the face of a divided Republican party and a divided Democracy. To say if this is desirable, and what it wants to achieve."

Favors State Capital.

"It is my intention to assist in advancing the juvenile court system, to prevent crime and preserve the youth of the state for usefulness, saving much of the cost of skillful housekeepers to assist in making prosperous and happy homes."

Continued on Page 2.

DEMOCRATS SAY TAFT HAS OUTSTANDING THINGS ABOUT NEWS

Leading Mormons Discuss Taft Editorial Published in Official Organ of Church.

OPINION IS GENERAL AS TO THE PAPER

IT CANNOT AT SAME TIME BE MOUTHPIECE OF CHURCH AND A POLITICAL JOURNAL.

Democrats generally were considerably exercised by the publication in The Sunday Herald of an editorial from the Deseret News in which a decided stand in favor of the election of Taft was taken. The News said that Taft was the best man for the presidency and quoted an unnamed authority in support of his position. With a view to ascertaining the sentiment of Mormon Democrats with regard to the attitude of the News, The Herald yesterday interviewed several of the more prominent ones.

In every instance, as will be seen by the sentiments expressed below, indignation against the Mormon church and come out as a straight Republican newspaper or cease printing Republican editorials and resume the functions for which it was created and become once more a church organ.

Two questions were submitted in each instance. First: "What was the purpose of the News editorial? Second: What will be its effect?" The replies follow:

Mr. Roberts' View.

B. H. Roberts.—There are two ways in which the editorial in the News on the Republican party nominee for president may be regarded. First, that it is the insipid utterance of a scoundrel who neither knows what he wants to say, nor how to say it. Evidently the writer could not steadfastly hold to logical thinking through so many as a score of sentences; for in the opening sentence he says: "Secretary Taft, if elected president, as he in all probability will be, will make an excellent chief executive." Then some forty lines further on, referring to Mr. Taft's victory in the Chicago convention, the writer says: "The victory in the convention is his own, and the victory at the polls will be his own. But will he win?" Query: Does the writer mean to assert positively that Mr. Taft will win, that he ought to win, that the News, organ of the Mormon church, will do what it can to have him elected? Or does the writer mean to insinuate that the News writer is merely propounding a presidential conundrum, as the last sentence would seem to indicate? Nor is the matter cleared up by the sentence which comes later, namely: "There is a quiet but certain feeling among the masses that Taft is the best man for the job."

Governor Cutler's Letter.

Mr. Cutler's letter announcing his candidacy follows:

"A number of my friends have urged me to place myself before the people of the state as a candidate for re-nomination. I have given the matter much thought that I had already been honored by the people of Utah as much as I deserved, and that I would not therefore be a candidate for a second term. But I have reconsidered; and especially because of the fact that such violent opposition to the policies of the present administration has been made by certain persons, some of whom, I am satisfied, have not the best interests of the state at heart. I have concluded to be a candidate again."

Educational Institutions.

"If I am re-nominated and re-elected, I intend to continue to work for the best interest of the whole state and all its people, as I see it. If I can have my way, we shall have the best university in America, turning out professional men who will be in demand everywhere. The vast of mines will furnish men to develop to the fullest possible extent the mineral wealth of Utah and the intermountain region, and help to bring the state to the position it is entitled to occupy; as the greatest producer of the precious and useful metals. Our agricultural college will be built up still further along the lines of its establishment, making thousands of practical farmers. The News determines what the end will be as soon as the national Republican party determines what it wants, and before the Democratic convention even meets to choose a candidate or formulate a platform, and this in the face of a divided Republican party and a divided Democracy. To say if this is desirable, and what it wants to achieve."

Utility for Campaign.

James H. Moyle.—The editorial of the News will be carried about the state in one way or another as an evidence of how the church authorities desire the presidential campaign. It is a shame, because the News determines what the end will be as soon as the national Republican party determines what it wants, and before the Democratic convention even meets to choose a candidate or formulate a platform, and this in the face of a divided Republican party and a divided Democracy. To say if this is desirable, and what it wants to achieve."

Favors State Capital.

"It is my intention to assist in advancing the juvenile court system, to prevent crime and preserve the youth of the state for usefulness, saving much of the cost of skillful housekeepers to assist in making prosperous and happy homes."

Continued on Page 5.

JAMES S. SHERMAN ILL AT CLEVELAND OWING TO RECENT STRENUOUS LIFE

Cleveland, June 22.—James S. Sherman, Republican nominee for vice president, has been ill here for two days. His illness has been the result of hard work at the Republican national convention, the forced keeping of unusual hours and the heat at Chicago and at Cincinnati, where he went with the subcommittee of the national committee Friday night to meet Secretary Taft. His physician tonight had no doubt that Mr. Sherman would be able to continue his journey to Utica tomorrow morning, as the attack is at an end. The present plan is for him to leave Cleveland at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning for his home in Utica, N. Y., accompanied by his secretary and one or two friends. The physician who was summoned to attend him said that no one should be admitted to the room and that Mr.